

Presents a
Satellite Symposium

Advances in Sterilization and Disinfection

Wednesday March 30, 2005, 16:30 – 19.00
Business Design Centre, London, Main Auditorium

In Association with the DECONTAMINATION SCIENCES CONGRESS

30th March – 1st April 2005

Jointly organized by the Institute of Sterile Services Management (ISSM), the International Federation for Sterile Supply (IFSS) and hosting the European Forum for Hospital Sterile Supply (EFHSS)

Participation free – Limited space available – Registration required

Program

- 16:40 Welcome and Introduction
Martin Favero PhD, Director, Scientific and Clinical Affairs
Advanced Sterilization Products, Johnson & Johnson
- 16:45 Emerging Infectious Diseases: Impact on Decontamination and Sterilization Strategies
Martin Favero PhD
- 17:10 Influence of ISO on Sterilization Practices Worldwide
Eamonn V Hoxey PhD, B Pharm, FRPharmS, Senior Director, Europe, Middle East and Africa,
Quality & Compliance Services WW, Johnson & Johnson
- 17:35 Planning of a New Sterile Service Dept: Experiences Gained
Mark Lavery, Head of Sterile Services Greater Glasgow
NHS Scotland
- 18:00 STERRAD® Sterilization System Utilization.
Miranda Eyles RGN, Bsc Hons
Theatre Manager, HCA Healthcare Ltd
- 18:20 Recent Advances on Automated Endoscope Reprocessing and New Disinfectants
Charles Roberts, MS, Director of R&D, Biocides
Advanced Sterilization Products, Johnson & Johnson
- 18:40 Instrument Processing and Prions: An update
Klaus Roth, SMP GmbH
Tuebingen, Germany

Question and Answer session

Post Symposia Canápes and Refreshments